

Artillery Lane

Overview

Artillery Lane is an old style city building comprising of 1 bedroom apartments. The location is ideal for city based workers who want the best of both worlds; a place to call home close to city offices and a prime location in close proximity to the cosmopolitan 'Brushfield Market' area with its famous Sunday market and array of boutique shops and street style cafes. Apartments are modern in design but retain some of the original features of the building. Each 1 bedroom apartment is tastefully decorated and provides comfortable living space with excellent storage facilities and fully equipped kitchens that complete the accommodation.
